Jeanne Coffey - Exalted Ruler

From The Exalted Ruler

Well, we have had a busy and productive eight months so far, and still more to accomplish. If you haven't been to the lodge, you owe it to yourselves. We have removed the wallpaper from the back room and painted it light and bright. Looking Good!! We replaced the air conditioners in the hall, reframed several beautiful works of art that were stored away. We are redoing the front brick wall. Thanks to Sal Grilli and Jim Scanlon we have a "renovated" flag pole out front with a brass globe on the top. Thanks to everyone for all your hard work.

We had a great Veterans Day. It was Rib Night and we had eleven Vets for dinner and "Dancing". The Arrow Scouts had a ceremony with the Armed Forces flags and we were all impressed. If you go to our website, www.elkslodge2365.org, there are pictures there.

We have Dinty Moore coming up fast on 12/2 as well as our Memorial Sunday on 12/3. Please try to come to honor our absent members that day. We have something very special planned.

The cutoff for New Years tickets is December 15, so please call and reserve yours. We are planning a rummage sale in February and a 40th Anniversary Gala in March. Watch for coming dates. We also have nominations for officers the first meeting in February. We have adopted two families for Christmas through the Kids in Distress Foundation, and we need canned goods etc. to fix baskets for them. We have a box in the lobby for that. Also, we need donations for clothing and toys. There are five children in all. Please find it in your heart to share Christmas spirit with them.

Hope to see all of you at Dinty Moore and through the holidays.

Remember, Appreciate, Communicate and Validate your Brothers and Sisters.

Fraternally,
Jeanne Coffey

DECEMBER 16 IS A BIG DAY

The day starts with the Children's Christmas party and breakfast with Santa at 9 am with even more surprises. If you haven't signed your children up yet at the lodge, please do so. We need the number of children for gifts.

The Adult Christmas Party starts at 6 pm that evening and please bring a covered dish if you are coming.

The lodge will provide a ham for entrée. there will be a sign-up sheet for the covered dish dishes at the lodge

Elk of the Month

Our Johnny on the Spot and Jack of All Trades, and an Elk that volunteers his services consistently, thank you for making our walls in the hall so bright and clean. Thank you for your ideas and putting them into action. Thank you for your total dedication to the secretary's job.

The list is long of your services and we appreciate and communicate that to you, our valued member of 36 years...

Jesse Clemence

APPLICATIONS WILL BE VOTED ON DECEMBER 7, 2006

On the Meeting held on 11/2/06, Brother Robert Tullio's name was drawn for attendance drawing. He was not present. loosing out on 155.00. Drawing for attendance on 11/16/06 will be for 165.00

On another note, Nominations for Officers for 2007-2008 will be on February 1, 2007. If you are interested in becoming an officer of the lodge, let one of the officers know. I know its a big part out of your life to go through the Chairs, especially young married couples, but we need to get some young blood into the working of the lodge, or it will fold.

Since my coming back as Secretary, we have a cove of senior citizens working around the lodge, and these old bones don't work like they used to. We have x number of people keeping functions running and they are getting tired. I have heard people respond, "I will support your lounge/ functions" but keep in mind, if we don't have a Lodge, you don't have a Lounge.

Anyway, elections are coming up so keep some of this in mind.

Jessie

Any information that needs to go in our bulletin has a deadline of the 10th of each month. Please contact Art Hill or secretary Jesse with any items for the bulletin so we can go to press On Time to get it out to our members. Office 954-963-6714.

Around the House

Hard to believe that another year is over, isn't it? Seems like just yesterday that we were getting ready for Christmas and New Years for 2006. Here we are doing the same for 2007, but before we go off to a new year, its always good to reflect on the year that is passing.

Our lodge made history this year, with our first female Exalted Ruler. We continued to meet all of our obligations to the Elks, locally, statewide and nationally. We also continued to welcome into our lodge our brothers and sisters from Plantation, who continue to work on their new home. We said goodbye to a number of our good and loyal members, writing their names on the tablets of love and memory. December 3 at Noon, we will remember all of our members of the Lodge of Sorrows at the Elks Memorial Service.

The current year also saw the passing of the infamous trailer from our side yard, the painting and refurbishing of the lodge. It also saw one of our members travel to Iraq for an extended visit and the marriage of one of our favorite PER's and bartenders. On a less positive note, we saw several functions cancelled because of lack of participation. The important thing is that we have survived another year, and will be having our fortieth anniversary party in 2007.

December will be an event filled month to finish off '06. Dinty Moore will come on the second, the Memorial on the third, the wrapping party on the 14th, the Christmas Parties on the 16th, and, of course, the New Years Party on the 31st. By the way, be sure to get your tickets to the New Year's Gala early and insure your choice of seat.

Next year we have a lot planned, starting with the NFL playoffs in January, Super Bowl Sunday in February, the return of NASCAR in February along with Jeanne's Rummage sale and our 40th birthday in March, along with that most joyous and green holiday. Look for all the events and plan to attend.

If you were a $1 beer where would you hide? At 2365 on Tuesdays, thats where. Don't forget the Texas Hold em Tourney on Wednesdays, Bingo on off Thursdays and Dinner and entertainment Friday's.

From everyone involved with the Lodge, Officers, Trustees, House Committee, Bulletin, and all committee members, the Merriest of Christmas's, a joyous holiday season, and the Happiest of New Year's.

See You, around the house,

Art
