Jeanne Coffey - Exalted Ruler

From The Exalted Ruler

We would like to welcome two new members installed on October 19th, Mary Orfino and Ed Zablocki, Welcome. We are now coming into the holidays and will be organizing a lot of activities for the members, and the key word here is MEMBERS.

We have had to cancel functions and take a loss on food ordering due to lack of members supporting our dinners and other activities. We had a major expense this year, replacing the Hall air conditioners, and we need every members help to recoup. One of the best ways is when we have dinners and dances to please come to them and bring a friend to show off your lodge. We all need to work together to keep our lodge solvent and if you cant volunteer then please come and participate!! Please call ahead for tickets so we can plan on enough food for everyone. Ok, enough nagging from me.

Watch the Bulletin for all our events and come join us. Love to see you.

The lodge gives personal thanks to Lecturing Knight Sal Grilli and all his helpers for the wonderful job they did with the Halloween party.

The Lodge would also like to extend our condolences to District Deputy Charlotte Burrie for the loss of her husband, Past District Deputy Donald Burrie, on October 24, 2006

Fraternally,
Jeanne Coffey

Elk of the Month

Elks Care and Elks Share... This Elk lives by these words. A veteran Elk of eighteen years of service to the Order. We thank him for his dedication to our Lodge and manning the kitchen for many of the functions that we are presently hosting for our members. Rib night's & Steak nights, to name a few. We Appreciate, Communicate, and Validate...

ALL APPLICATIONS WILL BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 2, 2006 AT REGULAR MEETING

On November 10th, Friday night, our monthly "Rib Night", the lodge has invited ten veterans from the Pembroke Pines Nursing Home to join us to celebrate veterans month and to show them a good time. We also have "Silver Wings" band that nite for your entertainment and dancing.

On November 4th, our drug awareness trailer will be at Boulevard Heights Elementary School Carnival (Johnson St. & 72nd Ave) to hand out literature and help do karaoke (compliments of PER Art Hill) Please come by and say hello.

Commin in January, February, and March on the third friday of those months we will have Fish Friday. In January the menu will be seafood scampi over linguini. Chef Dale and his sons will be cooking for us. Get your reservations in early. Call Jeanne @ 954-610-8316

On another note, Nominations for Officers for 2007-2008 will be on February 1, 2007. If you are interested in becoming an officer of the lodge, let one of the officers know. I know its a big part out of your life to go through the Chairs, especially young married couples, but we need to get some young blood into the working of the lodge, or it will fold.

Since my coming back as Secretary, we have a cove of senior citizens working around the lodge, and these old bones don't work like they used to. We have x number of people keeping functions running and they are getting tired. I have heard people respond, "I will support your lounge/functions" but keep in mind, if we don't have a Lodge, you don't have a Lounge.

Anyway, elections are coming up so keep some of this in mind.
Jessie

Any information that needs to go in our bulletin has a deadline of the 10th of each month. Please contact Art Hill or secretary Jesse with any items for the bulletin so we can go to press On Time to get it out to our members. Office 954-963-6714.

Around the House

Well, we made it through another scary season, Fred and I are another year older and all the ghosts, ghouls and goblins have gone to ground for another year. Arthur is anxiously awaiting his birthday on the second, but I guess he's still our youngest Elk. All in all, November promises to be an event filled and memorable month.

We are celebrating veterans with our Rib Dinner. A number of vet's from the living facility in Pembroke Pines will join us for dinner and the exciting sounds of Silver Wings band. Come by and represent your branch of the service.

Speaking of coming by we all need to remember that OUR lodge—that was lodge not bar—survives on the support that we all give to the functions which are planned and prepared by our brothers and sisters. A lot of work goes into each and every function, and all we have to do is attend. Our dues taken together barely pays the light bill so we really do rely on members support throughout the year. Let's not have any more functions like Oktoberfest, cancelled for lack of support.

November 12, will be the day for our Elks Picnic. Vicki will have her annual pre-Thanksgiving dinner the Monday before Turkey Day. Friday is the annual decorating party. Don't forget that Dinty Moore is coming December 2, and Elks Memorial Day Service on Sunday, Dec. 3.

Beginning in November, we will feature a reason to hang out at the lodge on Tuesdays—BUCK-A-BEER. That's right draft or bottle domestics 1.00 —that's like two for one for us bottle babies. That's every Tuesday night—it's even worth missing "House" for.

Speaking of good deals, don't forget New Year's Eve—great dinner, great band, great open bar, great friends and a great time, all for 45.00 per person. This year New Year's Eve falls on December 31, so make your plans and get your tickets early.

See you, around the house—

Art

The Pledge of Allegiance

By Senator John McCain

As you may know, I spend five and one half years as a prisoner of war during the Vietnam War. In the early years of our imprisonment, the NVA kept us in solitary confinement or two or three to a cell. In 1971 the NVA moved us from these conditions of isolation into larger rooms with as many as 30 to 40 men to a room.

This was, as you imagine, a wonderful change and was a direct result of the efforts of millions of Americans on behalf of a few hundred POW's 10,000 miles from home.

One of the men who moved into my room was a young man named Mike Christian. Mike came from a small town near Selma, Alabama. He didn't wear a pair of shoes until he was 13 years old. At 17, he enlisted in the US Navy. He later earned a commission by going to Officer training School. then he became a Naval Flight Officer and was shot down and captured in 1967. Mike had a keen and deep appreciation of the opportunities this country and our military provided for people who want to work and want to succeed. As a part of the change in treatment, the Vietnamese allowed some prisoners to receive packages from home. In some of these packages were handkerchiefs, scarves and other items of clothing. Mike got himself a bamboo needle. Over a period of a couple of months, he created an American flag and sewed on the inside of his shirt. Every afternoon, before we had a bowl of soup, we would hang Mike's shirt on the wall of the cell and say the Pledge of Allegiance.

I know the Pledge of Allegiance may not seem the most important part of our day now, but I can assure you that in that stark cell it was indeed the most important and meaningful event. One day the Vietnamese searched our cell, as they did periodically, and discovered Mike's shirt with the flag sewen inside, and removed it. That evening they returned, opened the door of the cell, and for the benefit of all of us, beat Mike Christian severely for the next couple fo hours. Then they opened the door of the cell and threw him in. We cleaned him up as well as we could. The cell in which we lived had a concret slab in the middle on which we slept. Four naked light bulbs hung in each corner of the room.

As I said, we tried to clean up Mike as well as we could. After the excitement died down, I looked in the corner of the room and sitting there beneath that dim light bulb with a piece of red cloth, another shirt and his bamboo needle, was my friend Mike Christian. He was sitting there with his eyes almost shut from the beating he had received, making another American flag. He was not making the flag because it made Mike Christian feel better. He was making that flag because he knew how important it was to us to be able to pledge our allegiance to our flage and country.

So the next time you say the Pledge of Allegiance, you must never forget the sacrifice and courage that thousands of Americans have made to build our nation and promote freedom around the world.

You must remember our duty, our honor, and our country.

"I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND TO THE REPUBLIC FOR WHICH HIT STANDS, ONE NATION UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL."
