Jeanne Coffey - Exalted Ruler

From The Exalted Ruler

Exhausted Redhead's Corner

First off, we have had members tell us they're not getting their bulletin. We don't know if it's postal or incorrect addresses. We're working with the printer to get this corrected but... The alternative is that we have a beautiful website at <http://www.elkslodge2365.org> designed by our webmaster Jim Blanchard and the bulletin is posted there for your information. We have so many activities going on and more to come so please visit the website and the links associated with it.

Don't forget the Rummage Sale on Feb 24 & 25th! I'll be looking for donations come the first week in February. Call me at 954-610-8316 to make arrangements for drop-offs. Thank you in advance.

We are working on the 40th Anniversary of the Lodge on March 10th and if you have any great pictures etc. you would like to share- please contact Mary Danvers or myself. It's going to be an awesome evening.

Nominations for Officers 2007-2008 will be February 1st and the voting will be on February 15th. We need members coming in for these important meetings so you know what's going on in your lodge.

Thanks to all the volunteers that keep the kitchen, the Lodge and the social quarters running smoothly. We very much appreciate your help.

Fraternally,
Jeanne Coffey ~ Exalted Ruler

Elk of the Month

For the many hours and miles he has worked for the veterans in honor of our Lodge. For all the smiles he has always given out. For all the donations he has made whenever needed. For his years of service as an officer of our Lodge, we would like to recognize our man in green (from head to foot) during football season... Thank you

Around the House

I presume that you are all settled in for the New Year, and are actually used to writing '07 on your checks. Events around the Lodge continue to progress as fast as the calendar seems to be going for this year.

The first, and most important, thing for February is the nomination and election of officers for the upcoming year. The nominations are on the first meeting and the elections are on the second.

Friday dinners continue to be spectacular, Ribs, Scampi, Meatloaf and an extra special fish fry brought to us by Jeanne on February 16. Don't forget her Rummage sale on the 24th either, as if she would let you forget. She doesn't seem to like me calling it Jeanne's Junk-et, so let's call it The Treasure Trove.

Can you believe our Lodge is 40 years old? A lot of history and great times have gone into these (and the predecessors) walls. This will all be celebrated next month with our Anniversary Gala that will be March 10, and see Mary or Jeanne for tickets. It will be a grand soiree. While we are on the subject of March, the most important green holiday of the year is coming, and this year is on a Saturday. Make plans now for St. Patty's fun with the Hooligan's.

I know you have all been wondering when I would get around to this, but....NASCAR RETURNS...in February with Speedweeks (yes, I will). For those of you worried that there would be no more of the world's smallest buckets when NFL season ended, the good news is that they've gone to the races.

Oh, and there's some kind of football game on the 4th. I see a lot of places around town offering parties for $50 per person with all you can eat and drink. Jesse is charging $5 for all you can eat, and if you can drink $45 at our prices, you're a better person than I, Gunga Din. My prediction for the game is that a team from East of the Mississippi will win.

See you, Around the House
