Exalted Rulers Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

The National Convention in Reno is over so now it's time to get back to work. The news letters from the convention will be posted on the bulletin board if you want to check out what happened. While at the convention the Exalted Ruler from Melbourne, FL passed away. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family and the Lodge.

Thank you, Tony Gomez and Donna Powers for representing the Lodge in Reno. Donna and I were able to go to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco before and after the convention. What a difference in climate and humidity from one coast to the other. While in San Francisco we visited the Elks Lodge #3 and it was like going back in time.

The Florida State President will be in our district August 2nd and 3rd. There will be a dinner on Friday night at the Boca Raton Lodge and Saturday night at the Delray Lodge. Make your reservations now we need to have all officers attend as suggested by District Vice President. The President's schedule of activities are posted in the Lodge. Hope to see you there.

We missed the Drive In Saturday Night but I heard that it was a success. Great going, Veterans Committee.

A special thank you to Wes and Maggie for doing Tuesday tacos, Jim Davidson for his great meals that he plans through out the month, Lydia Grilli for filling in on Wednesday night pasta, and John Musser for all of his help in the kitchen.

Fraternally,
Barbara Henry, PER

The Veterans Committee

Always Thank a Veteran when you see one.

The month of July was very active. The Flea Market Hosted by Lodge #2365 Veterans Committee was a huge success. The vendors were all impressed with their sales. The net profit for the Veterans Committee was $512.00 and a $100.00 Donation was made to our lodge. The next Flea Market will be August 3rd.

The Flea Market has grown to the point that we need a few Lodge Members to step up and help with the set up and break down. It only requires approximately 5 hours per month. Please help us to support our lodge.

The 50/60 party was a lot of fun, the live music, games and food were outstanding. Our new member John Musser (transfer from Sunrise Lodge) lent our Lodge his 1976 Stingray Corvette to take pictures as a memory of the good ole days. If you missed it, you missed a good time. We also had Marilyn Monrow show up (a Drag Queen) put on a show for us, it was a BLAST. We also had a costume contest for the best dressed 50s/60s person.

The following day, Sunday, The Veterans from Sandy Ninger Nursing Home came to the Lodge for Brunch. There were 11 Veterans, 1 wife of a Veteran, 3 helpers for the nursing home and one driver. They looked forward to coming out for the Brunch each month. This event will be ongoing.

In September we are having a Fall Festival Flea Market. We need items to sell. If you have clothing, Bric-a-Brac, tools or anything you would like to donate please share with us.

Don't forget our August Flea Market, we are also in need of articles to sell.

Secretary's Corner

Brother and Sister Elks,

The summer weather and vacations are slowing down things around the lodge. There have been some good things happening in spite of the lull....why not come in and see?

I had the honor of going to Grand Lodge Convention in Reno with Barbara Henry and Tony Gomez. Having been to many NEA national conventions, this wasn't my first rodeo but it was informative and impressive in many ways. I wish that more members would be able to attend at least once...they would truly appreciate what Elkdom is all about.

Please try to come out to celebrate the State President's visit this August. There are nice dinners planned for Friday in Boca Raton and Saturday in Delray....details on all the essentials of his visit are on the bulletin board.

Please note that August 10th is the DD Conference at Pompano Lodge at 9 am. All officers should try to attend, and it is open to any and all members who would like to learn more...why not join us?

See you around the Lodge..

Fraternally,

Donna Powers, Secretary
