Exalted Rulers Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

It's going to be a long hot summer and hurricane season is here so let's hope that we all stay safe.

June has been busy with weddings, wild turkeys, and birthday parties in the hall. Jim Davidson was busy in the kitchen for his monthly specials and Wes and Maggie stepped up to do tacos on Tuesdays

The Grand Lodge Convention is July 14th thru the 18th in Reno, Nevada. Donna Powers, Tony Gomez, and I will be attending.

The painting of the lodge has been put on hold for now. The palm trees have been removed from the back of the building and the oak trees have been cut back so we won't have so many leaves in the gutters. Dan Harden and his crew did a great job with the trees. Repairs are needed to some of the walls, but we are taking our time so the jobs will be done right. The paint was donated by one of our members and a special thank you from the lodge to you.

In my last message I forgot to mention Margaret Ruddy accompanied us on our bus trip to the youth camp. This lady volunteers to help for every dinner and function and has only said that she couldn't twice in the last three years. She is a true lady of this lodge.

Fraternally,
Barbara Henry, PER

The Veterans Committee

Always Thank a Veteran when you see one.

The June Flea Market was not that successful. When we started out approximately 1 year ago we averaged $72.00. It did get better, but when we started to use the Lodge Parking Lot we had a good increase in sales. June was a little disappointing because we were down from May sales. The weather all week was rainy and we had a cloudy morning on Saturday, it cleared up, but not soon enough for all of our vendors to come out. Lydia Grilli visited several local Flea Markets where she handed out our flyer and they were quiet regarding sales also.

We did not do so bad considering the weather. Looking forward to your support and doing better July 6, 2013. Bring your saleable donation and eyes to help us. Thank you.

The Veterans Committee had the Veterans from Sandy Ninger Nursing Home to our Lodge for Brunch and our Annual Flag Burning Ceremony. They were all impressed with the service to our Flag. Some of the Veterans did not realize that you burn our Flag to dispose of them when frayed. It was an enlightning moment to see the expression on our Veterans faces.

It was also Fathers Day, so most of the Veterans were here because they have no children or family in this area. We filled a little of the family need, that is what we are here for.

MARK YOU CALENDAR: On the 20th of July the Veterans Committee is having a 50/60s party at the Lodge. Everyone is invited, you, family and friends. There will be games, dancing to the 50's and 60's live music and all the treats you had back then. Donation is $12.00, come out and Party Hearty!

This month the Veterans Committee donated $100.00 to help support the Lodge.

Committee Chairman

Brother and Sister Elks,

Welcome to summer!

Things have been fairly quiet around the lodge so far this summer...and that can be a good thing at times! Just because it is quiet doesn't mean we aren't working hard.

Just a reminder.....during the months of June, July and August the lodge meets only on the first Thursday. The Board of Directors continues to meet on the first and third Wednesdays. We resume our normal two meetings per month in September.

Thank you to all of our members and spouses who have been giving over and above to help our lodge flourish....we appreciate all of you!

In my last message when talking about the bus trip to the Youth Camp at Umatilla, I neglected to mention that Margaret Ruddy was with us also. I tend to forget because Margaret is ALWAYS there for us. She serves on Wednesday and Friday nights, and is always ready to lend a hand....I really don't know what we would do without her.....She may not be an Elk per se, but she definitely has the heart of one!

We are also looking for donations of some bottles of liquor for the Golf Tournament.

The new By Laws booklets are in the office...stop by and get your copy for updated by laws and house rules.

Enjoy your summer, and hope to see you all at the July 4th cookout!

See you around the Lodge..

Fraternally,

Donna Powers, Secretary
