Exalted Rulers Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

Are you wondering what will happen this year at Hollywood West? So am I! I anticipate many activities within the lodge to draw current members closer and to obtain new members. The lodge's involvement in the community will be more visible. The installation of officers on March 28 indicated a cohesive and solid team willing to move Hollywood West Lodge forward. A big thank you to Vickie Crosby and her assistants for the delicious installation dinner. Ken Krellin graciously provided the music and attendance was impressive.

Are you apprehensive about becoming involved in the activities at Hollywood West? Don't be! The lodge can use your help. Hollywood West members are insightful and talented. Your suggestions are always welcomed as well as your support and involvement. The officers and I are always available for assistance.

The Saint Patrick's Dinner was a huge success. Many lads and lassies were attired in green. A few leprechauns were big winners. Although no one could dance a "jig", there were many who enjoyed line dancing. Hats off in appreciation to Terry Pinkerton and his group of leprechauns for this fun filled evening.

The building fund campaign is on going. Only a few payments remain for the roof repairs. Thanks to all members and guests who have donated to support this effort. Thanks Maggie for all the shamrocks, egg shapes, and bunny feet that decorate the mirrors. Great idea Maggie!

Always remember to support all the efforts this lodge undertakes in connection with our Veterans. The flea market is a great way to help. Come shop or better yet donate all your unwanted items. Proceeds help provide supplies for the veterans at the nursing facility.

Once again, let's all make Hollywood West a successful lodge. I'll be looking for you at the next meeting.

Fratemally,

Richard Freeman, Exalted Ruler

Looking for Volunteers to cook on Wednesdays "Italian Night". If you have some cooking skills and would like to help the lodge we need to fill opening for this event. Please contact any Lodge Officer if you are interested.

District Deputy Clinic

Saturday, April 18, 2015—8:30 am at the Delray Bch Lodge . Open to any members who would like to learn more about Elks and what is going on in our area. All Lodge officers should plan to attend.

The Veteran's Committee

March was a quiet month. The Veterans from the Sandy Ninger Nursing Home came to the Lodge for brunch. There were 8 Veterans, two drivers and one aide. As usual they were very satisfied, and looking forward to next month.

The March Flea Market was successful. We were able to raise enough money for a donation to our Lodge for the roof repair fund.

The next Flea Market has been scheduled for April 4, 2015. Donations are needed to increase the sales. The proceeds allow the Veterans Committee to donate more to the Lodge and to help our Veterans at the Sandy Ninger Nursing Home.

In the month of May we are having our Flea Market on Mothers Day Weekend ,May 9, 2015. Sal and Lydia Grilli will be selling fresh flowers at our Flea Market.

Come and support this event and help the Veterans Committee, to help the Lodge. Our vendors have jewelry, clothing (new and used) and many other gift items for Mothers Day.

The month of May will be our last Flea Market until September 5, 2015, when we will resume the monthly Flea Market
