Exalted Rulers Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

Happy New Year! I hope you all had a blessed Christmas. For some, the New Year begins with starting some sort of health plan, exercise plan, or perhaps your plan is to become active in the lodge. The lodge is a great place to become involved. It's never too late to jump on board the state president, Carl Ledig's motto - Be The Change. Change the attitude from self to THE LODGE. Hollywood West can be the best in the district with cooperation and thinking beyond our four walls. Want to chair an event? No problem, just present your plan at a Thursday meeting. Lots of good ideas are discussed in small groups, but they could be great ideas and recorded for publication if shared at the general members meeting on the first and third Thursday of each month. Grand Lodge expects protocol and procedures to be followed. Communicate, communicate and communicate. The Lodge finished the year in a flourish of activities. The Scholarship Committee diligently scored 26 potential scholarship applications. Some were very impressive and we're hoping to have a scholarship winner.

The Dinty Moore Dinner had a wonderful attendance, which raised over $1,000 for the Children's Christmas Party and Gifts. Congratulations to Leading Knight, Paul Houser, and Joe with his kitchen crew for this prosperous fundraiser.

The social quarters was lined with red shirts as many attended the Adult Christmas Party. Tasteful pot luck provided by many left no one hungry. An array of decadent desserts allowed for much sampling.

Escorted by the Southwest Ranches Fire Department, "Santa" arrived on Saturday, December 19, for his annual visit. Children from Hope Outreach in the Town of Davie as well as children from Elk members were treated to lunch, visits with Santa, and gifts. Thanks to the Elves who worked their magic "planning" and wrapping gifts. Quarter Auction provided last minute gifts for many. Attendance was good and a variety of food was available for sale.

What a way to end the year with a fabulous New Year's Eve Party! Good friends gathered to enjoy a delightful evening of delicious food, music, and celebration. Vicki Crosby and her kitchen crew out did themselves. Wow!

It was great to have out of town guests visiting us for the season. We have been enjoying the company of members from North Miami Lodge. Shake hands and welcome our newest members Benjamin (Benny) Stravato and Lawrence Molnar. Benny is bartending on the weekends at the Tiki Hut.

Jim Davidson has been cooking up some spectacular food on Sunday. His recent pig roast was phenomenally delicious. Keep looking for his menus.

December's Officer of the Month is awarded to Paul Houser. His hard work was evident with the Dinty Moore Fund Raiser Dinner, Children's Christmas Party, and New Year's Eve Party. Member of the Month goes to Jim Blanchard. He organized the Scholarship Committee, Adult Christmas Party, New Year's Eve Party, and ongoing technology updates. Also, Volunteer of the month to Maggie Neicin for all her volunteer work. Maggie did a fantastic job on decorating the hall for the various parties and assisting with the Children's Christmas Party. In closing, let's begin this year fresh, forgiving, and faithful to the Elk Organization.

The Veteran's Committee

The year of 2015 was a good year for the Veterans Committee. We had nine Flea Markets, three Charity Quarter Auctions and had the Veterans from Sandy Nininger Nursing Home to our Lodge many times for Brunch. The December Flea Market had a lot of last minute shoppers, they were buying the specials that the vendors had on sale. Our next Flea Market will be January 9, 2016.

The Charity Quarter Auction that was held on December 19, was a big hit. We had 18 vendors and fifteen door prizes to raffle off. If you had missed the auction (YOU MISSED A GREAT EVENT). As usual we need your help to support our lodge and all of its functions.

The Veterans Committee wishes every Elk Member and their Families, a Very Happy and Healthy New Year.
