Exalted Rulers Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

We have reached the halfway point of our Elk year and our Lodge is doing fine. We came through our slow summer months in much better shape financially than anyone could have imagined. Thank you to all who helped make this possible.

During September we had our visit with District Deputy Pat Maher and VP Frank Sellers. On the 20th they attended our Lodge meeting and viewed our Initiation ritual. You can be proud of the great job your officers did performing the ritual. The following week we had the Lodge audit and social visit, which was well attended by our members.

On Saturday the 22nd we had a party celebrating all the September birthdays of our members. Everyone brought a covered dish and Bennie provided a cake. There was talk about doing this regularly so let us know if you would be interested.

Since the Holidays are fast approaching I would like to tell you some of what we are planning. On Saturday, October 27th PDD Denise May-Carter will be hosting a Halloween/Octoberfest party. The Dinty Moore dinner will be held on December 1st. The Christmas parties for the kids and adults will be on the 22nd.

We are planning a fantastic New Year's Eve party with a live band and are looking to have a great turnout. PER Terry Pinkerton and Jim Davidson plan to have Friday night meals starting on October 12th and Steve Campbell is serving fried shrimp and chicken tenders on the 5th. Please make your plans to support as many of these functions as possible. I hope to see you around the Lodge.

The Veteran's Committee

The summer has gone and we hope the hot weather has gone too. October 6 starts our new Flea Market season. We are looking forward too a very successful year October 2018 through May 2019. Donations are being accepted. Please contact George Caffrey if you have a donation. His Cell. # is 954-494-5299. Your donations help support the Veterans at Sandy Nininger Veterans Nursing Home in Pembroke Pines, and all of the actives for the Veterans that we provide, like the Rodeo, the monthly birthday parties, special events (POW-MIA), Honor Flight to Washington D.C. We also provided Holiday gifts for the children of Mothers in distress at Susan B. Anthony Rehab Home in Pembroke Pines. Last year we provide 53 Holiday presents for the children. Your donations to the Veterans Committee are a big help to our Flea Market. During the Summer the Veterans Committee has cleaned out the storage container in the rear of the Lodge. We have room for small items that can be displayed for sale at our Oct. Nov. and December Flea Market. This is a good time for Holiday shopping. Our Venders have a lot of new and inexpensive items for purchase.

Do not forget our "Charity Quarter Auction", coming up on October 28, 2018. It is a lot of fun and an indoors-COOL event. You purchase a paddle for $3.00, put in a quarter or two to bid on an item, and what fun. The noise picks up and everyone wants to win. You could leave with a $25.00 item for .25 cents, what a deal. We also have food and drinks. This event is from 2PM through 6PM.

SEE YOU AT THE FLEA MARKET AND THE CHARITY QUARTER ACTION.

George Caffrey , Veterans Committee Chairman
