Exalted Ruler's Message

Brother and Sister Elks,
 We had a very busy month starting with the National Elks Convention. Myself, Ron and Diana Plumeri, Jim and Barbara Blanchard attended it in Tampa over the 4th of July weekend. Congratulations to Jim Blanchard DDGER, who was installed as our District Deputy for the South South-east District. We also voted for the Lodge on 15 resolutions and attended all the meetings and social events. Back to the Lodge, I would like to thank all volunteers for a great 4th of July picnic. The Queen of Diamonds was hit and a new one will start on Wednesday. Come out and play and have dinner. Also Gina Albright is doing an amazing job running Friday Night Bowling and cooking and thanks to Radar for stepping up and helping with the cooking, On July 25th we had a benefit for Benny S. to help with some of his bills, since he was injured in a car accident and out of work for months. The Officer of the Month is Brenda Smith for her hard work cooking and helping with Bingo and just stepping up to help with everything around the lodge. The Elk of the Month is Hank Kwiatkowski for the hard work he did cutting all the trees around the Lodge by himself in the morning before it got too hot .
 We are going into football season and we will have a lot of fun and good food for Saturday and Sunday games. I would like to thank everyone for all the TEAMWORK that goes on behind the scenes. We still need volunteers for Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday cooking. Thank You all for the help,
 Fraternally, Eddie Scanlon, Exalted Ruler

State President's Message

To all Members of the great Florida State Elks Association, Wow, the positive energy that is coming out of our state convention is exciting and is building across the state, and I feel it continuing right through the year! The teamwork has begun, as "Teamwork Makes Elkdom Shine," my motto this year. As I write this, we have just returned from the 156th Grand Lodge convention in Tampa, Florida. A highlight for me as your State President was to carry our Florida state flag across the stage during the opening ceremonies with Rudy Masi Sr., Past State President. With the national convention being canceled last summer, he and the other state presidents did not get a chance to walk with their flags, so this year, the Grand Lodge made it possible for us to walk together as a team. This was a proud moment for all of Florida Elkdom! The Florida convention committee and the host volunteers along with our COO/State Secretary, Carl Seibert, and his wife, PDD Theresa, and the remarkable Florida State Elks Association staff are to be commended for their efforts for a job well done in organizing this successful convention.

Joey and I have visited the three neighboring state conventions of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama, making new friends and learning about their state major projects. We have also visited the Central District, with District Vice President Brian Estus and his wife, Kris, and the Southwest District, with District Vice President Darrin Simone Sr., and his wife, Deborah. We had a wonderful time visiting these two districts and seeing the good works they are doing in helping to promote our programs and state major projects and in growing our membership!

Speaking of membership, please accept my State President's challenge to sponsor at least one new member or to invite someone back who has dropped their membership.

Growing our membership here in Florida is my focus as your State President. When our membership is growing, everything else will fall into place. Lodge revenues will go up and we will have more volunteers, more attendees at lodge functions and more prospective lodge officers. Anytime you have a lodge function, get on your microphone and welcome everyone, and talk about membership! Most of the time, people say nobody "asked" them to join. Plus, we need to call our lapsed members and encourage them to renew their membership in our great order. Let them know that just by being an Elk, they are helping to make a difference, as many are counting on us for help — our communities, youth, veterans and first responders.

Here is what will make the membership in your lodge grow:

- 1 – Strengthen your youth programs – Your Membership will GROW!
- 2 – Be active in your community – Your Membership will GROW!
- 3 – Host well-planned lodge activities – Your Membership will GROW!
- 4 – Maintain an active Veterans program in your lodge – Your Membership will GROW!
- 5 – Have an active Lapsation Committee making those calls – Your Membership will GROW!
- 6 – Publicize your charitable works – Your Membership will GROW!
- 7 – If you have an ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP Committee in your lodge – Your Membership will GROW!

Thank you in advance for accepting my State President's challenge to help us grow Florida Elkdom by sponsoring a new member or inviting someone back!

If you have a program that is working in growing your membership, please share it with our State Membership Chair, Rick Wright, PER (rwright1212@gmail.com), and me (persuzi66@gmail.com) so he can share it with his state committee team. Thank you!
