Exalted Ruler's Message

Brother and Sister Elks,

We are now into October, the year is going by fast. September was a good month for the Lodge. To start with; Labor Day Celebration along with drawing of the numbers for the Football Book Club and lotto basket. We enjoyed great chicken wings and had lots of fun. We had the Country Western Dinner with a good time for everyone that was there. Enjoyed all the delicious baked goods for the auction and DJ Dan played some dancing songs. We had seven new members join the Lodge, please welcome them. The kitchen is doing great on Wednesday night, Saturday and Sunday thanks to the volunteers for doing a good job. Welcoming new chefs Betty and Phil Underwood. The Saturday afternoon Bingo is very busy, come by 1:30pm. Get your bingo sheets and have a great lunch. The Board of Directors received four bids on the new air conditioner for the back hall. The new unit was installed and now the Lodge needs help to pay for the new unit. You should have received a Letter from the Board of Directors in the mail. The Golf Tournament is going great. Come sign up and play, volunteer or sponsor a sign. Teamwork is what it takes. Sunday NFL football games are on the TV's. Come out and have fun with other members. We still need some volunteers for cooking on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. The Queen of Diamond's is going up fast so come in, play and have a good dinner. Keep up the teamwork for a better Lodge for everyone. Officer of the Month is Gina Albright and the Elk of the Month is Grace Grella. Thank you for always helping where needed. Fraternally, Eddie Scanlon, ER
